

Soroptimist Violet Richardson Award

Madison Janes is the winner of the annual Soroptimist Violet Richardson Award for her community service work with Guide Dogs for the Blind. The Soroptimist Violet Richardson Award honors young women for their volunteer action in their community. The goal of this award is to recognize young women who make their community and their world a better place through volunteerism. Madison has raised 2 dogs for this agency over the last 3 years. “The time dedication that is required to raise a puppy into a working Guide Dog is substantial and requires real commitment on the part of the volunteer, Madison is a great example of teens committed to volunteer action” noted SITV President Michele Garcia. Madison was awarded $1000 for college expenses and a donation of $500 was made to Guide Dogs for the Blind in honor of Madison’s hard work. Madison intends to go to the University of San Francisco and study nursing; her goal is to become an OBGYN nurse.

Madison Janes